

BYLAW NO. 750
OF THE
TOWN OF KILLAM
IN THE PROVINCE OF ALBERTA

A bylaw of the Town of Killam, in the Province of Alberta to regulate the licensing of business, under authority of the Municipal Government Act, Statutes of Alberta, 2005, Chapter M-26.1.

WHEREAS for information purposes, the Town of Killam plans to license all businesses operating within the Town, whether in commercial or residential land use district, and

WHEREAS the Town of Killam wishes to undertake economic development activities, and believes that increased economic development will be a benefit to local businesses; and thus, will earmark all business license fee revenue as a portion of the funding for economic development activities, and

WHEREAS the Municipal Government Act provides for councils to pass bylaws to regulate businesses, business activities and persons engaged in business, and

WHEREAS the Municipal Government Act provides that a system of licenses may be enacted
